UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

20 AMERICAN FEDERATION OF 21 GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES, AFL-CIO, et al..

Case No.: 3:25-cv-03070-JD

Plaintiffs.

DECLARATION OF THOMAS ANDREW HUDDLESTON

V.

24 DONALD J. TRUMP, in his official capacity as 25 President of the United States, et al..

Defendants

1                   DECLARATION OF THOMAS ANDREW HUDDLESTON

2 I, Thomas Andrew Huddleston, declare as follows:

3         1. I am over 18 years of age and competent to give this declaration. This declaration 4 is based on my personal knowledge, information, and belief.

5         2. I am the Director of Communications for the American Federation of Government 6 Employees, AFL-CIO (“AFGE”), a labor organization and unincorporated association that 7 represents approximately 800,000 federal civilian employees through its affiliated councils and 8 locals in every state in the United States. I have been the Director of Communications since 9 2019. In my role as Director of Communications, I am responsible for overseeing and directing 10 AFGE’s press and public relations strategy.

11         3. Since the inauguration, AFGE has been a high-profile and vocal opponent of 12 President Trump’s administration and the administration’s actions harming federal workers. To 13 date, AFGE has filed nine legal cases challenging the administration’s actions. That litigation 14 has received nationwide press attention, and administration officials have publicly responded to 15 and attacked the litigation. Although the lawsuits are in their beginning stages, AFGE and its 16 union allies have achieved early success though temporary restraining orders and preliminary 17 injunctions halting some of the administration’s actions.

18         4. AFGE has also engaged in extensive public speech regarding the administration’s 19 policies affecting federal workers. AFGE’s leadership has been quoted extensively in press 20 articles and on national television, voicing AFGE’s disapproval of the administration’s actions, 21 emphasizing AFGE’s commitment to opposing those policies, and calling on others to join them.

22         5. A true and correct copy of the March 3, 2025, article published by AFGE titled, 23 “What AFGE Is Doing: A Recap of AFGE’s Major Actions Against Trump’s Attacks on Civil 24 Service,” which is available at and was downloaded from AFGE’s publicly available website at 25 the following link, <https://www.afge.org/article/what-afge-is-doing-a-recap-of-afges-major-actions-against-trumps-attacks-on-civil-service-2/>, is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. This article 26
27

1 was issued from my department and I was responsible for assigning the work and editing the 2 article.

3 Lawsuit Against Elimination of Civil Service Protections

4       6. On January 20, 2025, President Trump signed an executive order titled “Restoring 5 Accountability To Policy-Influencing Positions Within the Federal Workforce,”<sup>1</sup> which 6 reinstates an executive order from President Trump’s first term stripping civil service 7 employment protections from a wide swath of federal workers, including many AFGE members.

8       7. On January 29, 2025, AFGE filed suit alongside the American Federation of 9 State, County and Municipal Employees (“AFSCME”) against Defendants Donald Trump, 10 Charles Ezell, Acting Director of the Office of Personnel Management (“OPM”), and OPM, 11 challenging the executive order as unlawful. See AFGE v. Trump, Compl., 1:25-cv-00264 12 (D.D.C. Jan. 29, 2025).

13       8. AFGE released a public statement announcing the lawsuit: “AFGE is filing suit 14 with our partner union today to protect the integrity of the American people’s government.
 15 Together, we can stop the efforts to fire hundreds of thousands of experienced, hard-working 16 Americans who have dedicated their careers to serving their country and prevent these career 17 civil servants from being replaced with unqualified political flunkies loyal to the president, but 18 not the law or Constitution.”<sup>2</sup>

19       9. The national media has covered AFGE’s lawsuit, including the union’s 20 allegations that the administration’s “scheme seeks to put politics over professionalism, contrary 21 to the laws and values that have defined our career civil service for more than a century.”<sup>3</sup>

1       10. In late January, it came to light that Elon Musk and the “Department of 2 Government Efficiency” temporary organization (“DOGE”) were seeking access to sensitive 3 data held by the Department of Treasury.<sup>4</sup>

4       11. On February 3, 2025, AFGE filed suit alongside Alliance for Retired Americans 5 and Service Employees International Union (“SEIU”) against Defendants Secretary of Treasury, 6 Department of Treasury, and Bureau of the Fiscal Service. See Alliance for Retired Americans v.
 7 Bessent, Case No. 1:25-cv-313 (D.D.C. Feb. 3, 2025). The suit challenges the defendants’ 8 disclosure of personal and financial information contained in Defendants’ records to Elon Musk 9 and other members of the “Department of Government Efficiency” (“DOGE”).

10      12. When the lawsuit was filed, AFGE issued a statement condemning the disclosure: 11 “It is disgraceful that the Trump administration has allowed unelected billionaires and their 12 lackeys unfettered access to the personal and financial information of Americans. Together, we 13 can stop this violation of American citizens’ privacy.”<sup>5</sup>

14      13. The D.C. District Court issued a partial temporary restraining order restricting 15 DOGE access to the data. The order was later lifted and litigation is ongoing.

16      14. The national media has covered AFGE’s lawsuit, including the union’s 17 allegations that Treasury Secretary Bessent “took punitive measures against officials who sought 18 to protect that information from improper access and allowed DOGE full access to the data,”<sup>6</sup> 19 and “[t]he scale of the intrusion into individuals’ privacy is massive and unprecedented.”<sup>7</sup>

1       15. On January 28, 2025, OPM sent an email to nearly all federal workers with the 2 subject line “Fork in the road.”<sup>8</sup> The email offered deferred resignation to AFGE members and 3 other federal employees, in an apparent effort to shrink the size of the federal workforce.

4       16. On February 4, 2025, AFGE filed suit alongside AFSCME and the National 5 Association of Government Employees (“NAGE”) against Defendants Charles Ezell, in his 6 official capacity, and OPM, alleging that the “fork” directive is unlawful. See AFGE v. Ezell, 7 Case No. 1:25-cv-10276 (D. Mass. Feb. 04, 2025).

8       17. The day the lawsuit was filed, AFGE issued a public statement condemning the 9 “fork” directive: “AFGE is bringing this suit with our partners today to protect the integrity of 10 the government and prevent union members from being tricked into resigning from the federal 11 service,” said AFGE National President Everett Kelley. “Federal employees shouldn’t be misled 12 by slick talk from unelected billionaires and their lackeys. Despite claims made to the contrary, 13 this deferred resignation scheme is unfunded, unlawful, and comes with no guarantees. We won’t 14 stand by and let our members become the victims of this con.”<sup>9</sup>

15       18. On February 6, 2025 the District Court of Massachusetts issued a temporary 16 restraining order blocking the deferred resignation deadline. That same day, OPM issued a 17 memo to the heads of all federal agencies directing them to submit a list of all federal employees 18 “who received less than a ‘fully successful’ performance rating in the past three years” and to 19 identify the terms of any applicable collective bargaining agreement that would “impede ... the 20 agency’s ability to swiftly separate low-performing employees.”<sup>10</sup>

21       19. Following the February 6, 2025 temporary restraining order, AFGE issued a 22 public statement: “‘We are pleased the court temporarily paused this deadline while arguments 23 are heard about the legality of the deferred resignation program,’ Everett Kelley, president of 4       20.     Dozens of nationwide news outlets covered the court win with many reporting on 5 AFGE’s statements.<sup>12</sup>

6       21.     Later in February, AFGE and its allies organized a series of demonstrations 7 drawing federal workers and their allies to the Capitol and OPM’s offices in Washington, D.C., 8 where they protested the “fork in the road” directive and other administration efforts to 9 dramatically and arbitrarily reduce the federal workforce. The Washington Post covered the 10 protests and AFGE’s lawsuit.<sup>13</sup>

11       22.     On February 12, the court issued an order permitting the deferred resignation 12 initiative to go forward. AFGE President Kelley issued a public statement confirming AFGE’s 13 commitment to opposing the directive: “Importantly, this decision did not address the underlying 14 lawfulness of the program. We continue to maintain it is illegal to force American citizens who 15 have dedicated their careers to public service to make a decision, in a few short days, without 16 adequate information, about whether to uproot their families and leave their careers for what 17 amounts to an unfunded IOU from Elon Musk.”<sup>14</sup> 12 Lawsuit to Prevent DOGE From Accessing Sensitive Agency Data (Labor, Health and

14       24. On February 5, 2025, AFGE brought a lawsuit seeking to protect the confidential 15 information of federal workers housed at the Department of Labor, Department of Health and 16 Human Services, and the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau from being disclosed 17 improperly to DOGE. AFGE filed suit alongside other unions and nonprofit organizations

6 Lawsuit to Prevent Dismantling of USAID

7       27. Starting on January 20, 2025, and continuing thereafter, the Trump administration 8 has taken a series of actions to abruptly halt and then close down the United States Agency for 9 International Development (“USAID”).<sup>20</sup>

10      28. On February 6, 2025, AFGE filed a lawsuit along with the American Foreign 11 Service Association against Defendants Donald Trump, Department of State, U.S. Agency for 12 International Development, Treasury Department, and the Secretaries of State and Treasury. See 13 American Foreign Service Association v. Trump, Case No. 1:25-cv-352 (D.D.C. Feb. 6, 2025).
 14 The lawsuit challenges actions by President Trump and the administration to dismantle USAID.

15      29. In news articles, AFGE condemned the administration’s actions: “The men and 16 women of USAID deserve a government that values and understands their contributions, not one 17 that leaves them high and dry and unable to pursue their important work after a hostile takeover,” 18 said Everett Kelley, AFGE National President. “We will stand up for our members and all

3       30.     The D.C. District Court initially granted a temporary restraining order against the 4 defendants. After the court denied a preliminary injunction, AFGE issued a public statement 5 confirming its commitment to challenging the dismantling of USAID: “Today’s ruling is a

11 Lawsuit to Prevent DOGE From Accessing Sensitive Agency Data (OPM)

12       32.     On February 11, 2025, AFGE filed a lawsuit seeking to halt the disclosure of 13 federal employees’ personal data in OPM files to DOGE. AFGE filed suit alongside the 14 Association of Administrative Law Judges, International Federation of Professional and 15 Technical Engineers, and current and former federal employees against OPM, Charles Ezell, 16 DOGE, Elon Musk, and other administration defendants. See AFGE v. OPM, Case No. 1:25-cv-

1       34. AFGE's National President Kelley publicly condemned the firing as unlawful:
 2 "This administration has abused the probationary period to conduct a politically driven mass 3 firing spree, targeting employees not because of performance, but because they were hired before 4 Trump took office. ... AFGE will fight these firings every step of the way. We will stand with 5 every impacted employee, pursue every legal challenge available, and hold this administration 6 accountable for its reckless actions. Federal employees are not disposable, and we will not allow 7 the government to treat them as such."<sup>26</sup>

8       35. On February 20, 2025, AFGE filed suit alongside AFSCME, United Nurses 9 Associations of California/Union of Health Care Professionals, the State of Washington, and 10 nonprofit organizations against Defendants OPM and Charles Ezell, challenging OPM's order.

13       36. The Northern District of California issued a temporary restraining order and then 14 a preliminary injunction directing OPM to rescind its order and ordering the agencies to put 15 terminated employees back to work. AFGE's statements about the victory were reported in the 16 nationwide press. To the BBC, President Kelley "called the ruling a victory for Americans who 17 were 'illegally fired' from their jobs by an agency with 'no authority to do so.'"<sup>27</sup> In USA Today, 18 President Kelly called the decision "an important initial victory" for the people who were 19 recently fired: "These are rank-and-file workers who joined the federal government to make a 20 difference in their communities, only to be suddenly terminated due to this administration's 21 disdain for federal employees and desire to privatize their work," he said.<sup>28</sup>

1       37. On March 14, 2025, after Judge William Alsup issued a preliminary injunction 2 granting the unions' request to reinstate unlawfully fired probationary workers, President 3 Trump's advisor, Elon Musk, retweeted a photo of Judge Alsup, stating that unless "the absolute 4 worst judges get impeached, we don't have real democracy in America."<sup>29</sup>

5       38. On March 16, 2025, Fortune Magazine observed that "[u]nions have played a 6 major role in legal challenges to the mass firing of federal workers."<sup>30</sup>

7       39. On March 17, 2025, President Trump described the unions' lawsuit and Judge 8 Alsup's decision as "absolutely ridiculous . . . a very dangerous thing for our country." 9 Referring to the reinstated union members, President Trump said without support "these are 10 people in many cases they don't show up for work . . . a judge want us to pay 'em even if they 11 don't know if they exist . . . and I don't know if that's going to be happening."<sup>31</sup>

12       40. Dozens of press outlets covered the lawsuit and AFGE's public statements.<sup>32</sup>

13 Lawsuit Challenging Termination of TSA Officers' Union Contract

14       41. On March 7, 2025, the Department of Homeland Security announced it was 15 ending collective bargaining for the Transportation Security Administration's ("TSA")

1 Transportation Security Officers<sup>33</sup>

2       42. AFGE issued a public statement condemning the termination: “Our union has 3 been out in front challenging this administration’s unlawful actions targeting federal workers, 4 both in the legal courts and in the court of public opinion. Now our TSA officers are paying the 5 price with this clearly retaliatory action. Let’s be clear: this is the beginning, not the end, of the 6 fight for Americans’ fundamental rights to join a union. AFGE will not rest until the basic 7 dignity and rights of the workers at TSA are acknowledged by the government once again.” 8 President Kelley said: “I call on all patriotic and freedom-loving Americans to contact your 9 elected officials and demand they take action immediately to stop these attacks.”<sup>34</sup>

10       43. On March 13, 2025, AFGE and AFGE Local 1121, alongside the 11 Communications Workers of America and Association of Flight Attendants, filed suit against 12 Defendants Kristi Noem, Department of Homeland Security, Adam Stahl, and the Transportation 13 Security Administration challenging the termination. See AFGE v. Noem, Case No. 2:25-v-14 00451 (W.D. Wash. Mar. 13, 2025). The lawsuit challenges the Department of Homeland 15 Security’s attempt to rescind its collective bargaining agreement between AFGE and TSA, which 16 covers 47,000 TSA employees.

17       44. The same day as the lawsuit, AFGE issued a public statement opposing the 18 cancellation of the TSA contract: “This attack on our members is not just an attack on AFGE or 19 transportation security officers. It’s an assault on the rights of every American worker ... Tearing 20 up a legally negotiated union contract is unconstitutional, retaliatory, and will make the TSA 21 experience worse for American travelers.”<sup>35</sup>

22       45. The national media reported on AFGE’s lawsuit and AFGE’s statements. For 23 instance, Politico reported on President Kelley’s statement that the cancellation “is merely a

 2 happen to belong to a union.”<sup>36</sup> The New York Times and Reuters reported on the lawsuit’s 3 allegations that “This retaliatory action is in accord with a broader Trump administration policy 4 of terminating contracts in retaliation for protected speech.”<sup>37</sup>

5 Lawsuit to Prevent Dismantling of Voice of America

6       46. On March 14, 2025, President Trump issued an executive order eliminating, 7 among six other agencies, the U.S. Agency for Global Media, which operates Voice of 8 America.<sup>38</sup>

9       47. The next day, AFGE President Kelley issued a statement condemning the 10 elimination of Voice of America: “Voice of America was founded to spread the truth and fight 11 propaganda from lawless authoritarian regimes—so it’s no surprise that the Trump 12 administration is trying to dismantle it. This blatant political takeover isn’t just an attack on our 13 members’ jobs—it’s an assault on press freedom, journalistic integrity, and democracy the world 14 over.”<sup>39</sup>

15       48. On March 21, 2025, AFGE filed suit alongside AFSCME, the American Foreign 16 Service Association, NewsGuild-CWA, Reporters without Borders, and individual journalists 17 against the U.S. Agency for Global Media and its senior leaders. See Widakuswara v. Lake, 1:25-18 cv-02390-JPO (S.D.N.Y. March 21, 2025). The suit challenges the Trump administration’s 19 decision to abruptly shutter Voice of America, lock out journalists, cancel grants, and end its 20 broadcasts.

1       49. When the court issued a temporary restraining order prohibiting the government 2 from dismantling the international broadcasting network or terminating employees that have 3 been placed on administrative leave, AFGE publicly praised the injunction as “a decisive victory 4 for press freedom and a sharp rebuke to an administration that has shown utter disregard for the 5 principles that define our democracy.”<sup>40</sup>

6       50. National media outlets reported on AFGE’s lawsuit to keep Voice of America 7 open and on AFGE’s statements.<sup>41</sup>

8 Other Public Criticism and Speech Activity in Opposition to the Administration

9       51. AFGE’s public criticisms of the Trump Administration have not been limited to 10 the subjects of its lawsuits. AFGE has been among the administration’s most consistent and 11 outspoken critics. AFGE’s criticisms have been widely reported in the nationwide press.

12       52. In January 2025, President Kelley appeared on national television criticizing 13 President Trump’s cuts to federal DEI programs. *See MSNBC The ReidOut: Trump doesn’t

1       53. On February 19, 2025, AFGE issued a statement condemning the Trump 2 Administration's efforts to dismantle the Social Security Administration: "The American people 3 deserve better than broken promises and a hostile takeover of Social Security by unaccountable 4 billionaires .... We need to protect Social Security from this scheme—not just for today's 5 seniors, but for future generations."<sup>45</sup>

6       54. In late February 2025, the national press reported AFGE's criticism of the Musk 7 email asking federal employees to respond to the question "What did you do last week?" with 8 five bullet points or face dismissal.<sup>46</sup> AFGE President Kelley wrote a letter informing OPM 9 Acting Director Ezell: "The email fails to identify any legal authority permitting OPM to demand 10 the requested information. OPM's actions conflict with laws delegating the authority for the 11 management of federal employees to their respective agencies and do not comport with OPM's 12 own regulations and guidance."<sup>47</sup> In the press, President Kelley condemned Musk's request for 13 federal employees to account for the work they did in the past week or face dismissal as "cruel 14 and disrespectful."<sup>48</sup>

15       55. On March 5, 2025, AFGE issued a statement condemning the administration's 16 plans to slash 83,000 VA positions: "Until Elon Musk and Donald Trump came on the scene, 17 America never turned its back on our veterans and their families. Their reckless plan to wipe out 18 the VA's ability to deliver on America's promise to veterans will backfire on millions of 19 veterans and their families who risked their lives in service for our country."<sup>49</sup> On March 26, 20 AFGE members staged a public protest outside Brooklyn VA Medical Center, where President 21 Kelley addressed the crowd: "We gather here at Brooklyn VA Medical Center not just as

3       56. On March 18, 2025, AFGE President Kelley wrote an op-ed in Newsweek, in 4 which he argued that “Elon Musk and his Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) have 5 been on the job for less than two months, but the early results are nothing short of disastrous.
 6 These include a series of airplane safety incidents, cancelled appointments at the VA, long lines 7 outside national parks, and abandoned medical research. Through it all, there is an overriding 8 sense that the world’s richest man is using his power over President Donald Trump to steal from 9 the public coffers and enrich himself. … To create a more efficient and effective federal 10 government, the first thing we should do is fire Elon Musk and close his DOGE.”<sup>51</sup>

11       57. On March 20, 2025, AFGE warned that “Trump’s Directive to Abolish Education 12 Department Will Destroy Education in America,” adding that “The Department of Education 13 plays a crucial role supporting our students and their families at schools and universities in every 14 community across this nation, and President Trump’s directive to eliminate this small but mighty 15 agency would destroy our education system and devastate future generations of students.”<sup>52</sup>

16       58. AFGE has organized, or helped its affiliates organize, several public protests in 17 response to actions by the Trump administration.<sup>53</sup>

18 The Trump Administration’s Public Responses

19       59. In a February 12, 2025 post on Truth Social, President Trump responded to 3       60. On February 16, 2025, President Trump posted on Truth Social an article titled 4 “Dems and Judges Shredding Article II Are A Threat To Democracy,” which criticized a 5 coalition of “blue states, labor unions, and non-profit organizations [that] have descended on 6 federal courts up and down the East Coast seeking to halt President Donald Trump’s agenda.”

7       61. After Musk reposted a tweet on March 13, 2025, that stated, “Stalin, Mao and 8 Hitler didn’t murder millions of people. Their public sector workers did,” AFGE President 9 Kelley defended public employees: “The implication that the American citizens working at your 10 local VA hospital or Social Security office are worse than Hitler, Stalin, or Mao – history’s most 11 despicable masterminds of genocide and mass murderer – is totally disconnected from reality. ....
 12 That this baseless accusation comes from the single most influential person in our government 13 should alarm every citizen.” Other national news outlets covered Musk’s tweet.<sup>55</sup>

14       62. In a March 28, 2025, interview with Fox News, Musk responded to a question 15 about the success of unions and other plaintiffs securing TROs and preliminary injunctions by 16 blaming the “very far left bias” of the D.C. Circuit Court and suggesting that those benefiting

What AFGE Is Doing: A Recap of AFGE's Major Actions Against Trump's Attacks on Civil Service

March 03, 2025

Categories: The Insider (<https://www.afge.org/articles/?Category=84>)

It's been only six weeks since President Trump took office, but the damage to our government and the U.S.'s standing in the world has been massive. AFGE and our members, however, are fighting back. Here's a quick recap of the major actions we have taken:

1. Probationary employees: We filed a lawsuit (</article/afge-files-lawsuit-against-opm-for-illegal-mass-firings-of-probationary-employees/>) against the administration for its illegal mass firings of probationary employees. A federal judge on Feb. 27 ruled (</publication/federal-court-finds-> firing-of-probationary-federal-employees-illegal/) that the mass firings were unlawful, saying OPM has no authority to fire employees employed by other agencies.

2. USAID bill: We worked with members of Congress to introduce a bill, H.R. 1196 (<https://www.congress.gov/bill/119th-congress/house-bill/1196>), to prohibit the use of federal funds to eliminate the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID). The agency was one of the first and biggest targets of the Trump administration, which has proceeded to end (<https://www.reuters.com/world/us/usaid-workers-say-goodbye-headquarters-trump-drastically-cuts-foreign-aid-2025-02-27/>) more than 90% of its foreign aid contracts. AFGE and allies are pursuing the next step of a lawsuit (/article/afge-allies-vow-to-continue-fight-to-save-usaid/) that seeks to stop the administration's illegal attempt to shut down USAID. The recent decision by a judge to allow the Trump administration to put employees on leave was not on the merit of the case but rather jurisdiction – that the case should be heard in federal labor court. In addition to the lawsuit, we're also working with Local 1534 which represents USAID employees, to file grievances over its violations of the labor-management contract and appeals to the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB) for unlawful terminations of employees. To keep our members informed of the current situation including lawsuits that affect them, AFGE created a new website for USAID employees at www.afge.org/usaid (/take-action/campaigns/we-are-afge-strong/usaид-strong/). The website also provides resources such as ways they can fight back the attack on their agency, Executive Action Toolkit, RIF FAQ, Probationary FAQ, education resources, and more.
3. Musk's emails: Elon Musk's Office of Personnel Management (OPM) backtracked (<https://www.govexec.com/workforce/2025/02/opp-says-musk-demand-feds-report-accomplishments-voluntary/403221/?oref=ge-mini-feed>) on its email requiring federal workers to list five things they did the past week or risk termination after AFGE threatened (/publication/afge-president-everett-kelley-response-to-elon-musks-demand-for-federal-workers-justify-their-jobs-or-resign/) to challenge any unlawful terminations of our members. AFGE issued a statement and provided guidance (/take-action/campaigns/we-are-afge-strong/executive-action-toolkit/guidance-opm-email/) to members on the issue right after Musk sent the email that caused confusion and stress among the federal workforce. Musk sent another email the following week. AFGE reiterated our stance.
4. Legally binding contracts: For years, AFGE has prepared our locals to protect members in the event a future president tried to politicize the federal workforce. Our council and local leaders have put in place several safeguards against the politicization of the workforce and the work our members do in negotiated, legally-binding contracts. The AFGE EPA Council 238, for example, signed (<https://afge238.org/news/press-release-afge-council-238-reaches-new-contract-with-the-epa/>) a contract last year with a provision protecting scientific integrity.
5. Grievances: We're working with councils and locals in drafting local and national grievances against actions that violated our contracts.
6. Fighting back: AFGE's councils and locals have been working hard to protect members from illegal efforts to shut down their agencies and cut staff. Trump's attacks are unprecedented, but we are not taking it lying down. The AFGE council representing Social Security Administration (SSA) employees, for example, was largely successful in shielding the workers from Trump's early attacks and is now working to fight Trump's plan \(<https://prospect.org/health/social-security-administration-could-cut-half-its-workforce/>\) to cut staff by 50%.

7. Schedule F: We filed a lawsuit \(/publication/public-service-unions-file-lawsuit-challenging-trump-administration-efforts-to-politicize-the-civil-service/\) against the administration for its efforts to politicize the civil service through Schedule F, now renamed Schedule Career/Policy.
8. DOGE: We filed a lawsuit \(/publication/advocacy-group-unions-sue-treasury-department-over-illegal-doge-data-access/\) against the administration for sharing confidential data with the so-called Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) run by Elon Musk. As a result, a judge partially blocked \(/article/judge-partially-blocks-doge-data-access-in-response-to-lawsuit-by-afge-allies/\) DOGE's access to the Treasury Department's payment systems.
9. DOGE: We filed a lawsuit \(/article/afge-allies-file-suit-against-trump-omb-over-doge/\) against the administration for violating a law requiring that an advisory committee such as the Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) be fairly balanced in its membership and points of view.
10. DOGE: We filed a lawsuit \(<https://www.asppa-net.org/news/2025/2/doge-puts-dol-in-its-sights-labor-groups-push-back/>\) against the administration for violating the Privacy Act and Administrative Procedures Act when DOGE tried to access sensitive data at the Department of Labor and dismantle and restructure federal agencies unilaterally. A judge Feb. 27 ordered \(<https://www.nbcnews.com/politics/doge/judge-orders-doge-employee-testify-lawsuit-trump-administration-rcna194145>\) DOGE to testify.
11. Fork directive: We filed a lawsuit \(/publication/trump-administration-fork-directive-ultimatum-unlawful-as-written-unions-urge-court-to-find/\) against the administration for removing career public service workers and replacing them with partisan loyalists through the Fork Directive. A judge paused \(/article/judge-blocks-implementation-of-fork-directive-as-requested-by-afge-allies/\) the deadline for the deferred resignation program as a result. Even though the judge eventually refused to further pause the deadline, we were able to delay the deadline to allow members to make a decision. The case is still ongoing as the judge did not rule on the underlying lawfulness of the program but procedural grounds, arguing the union had no direct stake.
12. Executive Action toolkit: AFGE released a toolkit \(/take-action/campaigns/we-are-afge-strong/executive-action-toolkit/\) for members and locals to use in response to Trump's anti-worker executive orders. The toolkit includes guidance and templates and will be updated regularly.
13. Online clearing house: AFGE and allies have launched an online clearing house to share best practices and provide assistance to federal workers in understanding and exercising their rights. Civil Service Strong \(<https://www.civilservicestrong.org/>\) provides information about employee rights, legal representation, whistleblowing, and more. It explains the process to file a discrimination complaint through the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the role of the Merit Systems Protection Board in protecting the civil service from political interference and upholding merit principles. The resource center will soon launch a centralized hub for individuals facing harassment by private individuals, or fearing firing, reassignment, or retaliation.

14. Town halls: We held and participated in internal and external national, local, council, and district town halls with AFGE members, supporters, and elected officials discussing how AFGE is fighting and sharing best practices on how others can support our fight.
15. Public responses: AFGE continues to educate the public about the impact of these anti-worker policies on federal employees and the American people who rely on them to provide the services they have paid for and deserve. AFGE leaders have been giving interviews to the media and have been quoted extensively on the danger of these policies.
16. Legislative efforts and rallies: AFGE has been educating members of Congress on the real-world impact of Trump's anti-worker directives on federal workers and the American people they serve in the hopes that they will work to nullify them through legislation. After Election Day, we began tracking statements and policy positions related to the federal workforce issued by President-elect Trump, congressional leaders, and think tanks supporting the incoming administration and gaming out the potential scope and impact of changes that the Trump administration and the 119th Congress could seek to make to the federal workforce. We expect the next 18 months to pose the gravest threat to the nonpartisan, merit-based civil service system since the system was established in 1883 and revised in the 1978 Civil Service Reform Act. We have also been working closely with our allies on Capitol Hill, in both the Republican and Democratic parties, to protect federal workers' jobs, pay, and benefits.
